ABOUT US

United For Humanity is a non-profit organization established by a group of students from various colleges with the mission to eradicate social evils in their neighboring communities. This initiative, originally localized, quickly gained momentum and spread nationwide as more students embraced the vision of United For Humanity (UFH) in their respective areas.

TEAM UFH INTEGRATES THEIR EFFORTS WITH THE TEACHINGS OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD (PBUH), WHO EXEMPLIFIED HOW TO BECOME A GOOD PERSON BY SERVING OTHERS, REGARDLESS OF THEIR COLOR, GENDER, CLASS, REGION, RELIGION, OR OTHER SOCIAL DISTINCTIONS. EMPHASIZING THESE INCLUSIVE VALUES, UFH AIMS TO FOSTER A SOCIETY WHERE ALL INDIVIDUALS ARE TREATED WITH RESPECT AND DIGNITY.

WHAT WE DO?

Drawing inspiration from our grand vision and mission, UFH is on a mission to conquer specific goals that will uplift souls, nurture all-around growth, and cultivate a community bursting with unity and eco-friendliness.

United For Humanity aligns its activities with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) set by the United Nations, striving to achieve these global objectives through their initiatives. Although UFH began as a small group of dedicated students, it has since grown into a widespread movement with hundreds of volunteers from diverse fields across the country, all contributing their skills and support to various domains of the organization's work.

Our organization is committed to empowering youth, Children, Women, and other marginalized communities by fostering connections among individuals to create a just and equitable society. We believe this can be achieved by embracing the spiritual strength and welfare orientation derived from the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and adhering to the values that form the core of our mission: Justice, Equality, and Human Dignity, Human Empowerment, Nature, Care and Quality of Life.

Integration of Social Work Principles and Values in United For Humanity

United For Humanity Foundation integrates key social work principles and values into its operations and initiatives, ensuring a holistic approach to its mission and goals. Some of the key principles and values that guide UFH's work include:

QASIM USMANI

FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

The year 2019 brought a charismatic boost to our organization. The campaign, which began in 2018, transformed into a registered organization under the Indian Trust Act in April 2019.

In 2019, we established teams in different colleges, granting them full autonomy to work within their neighborhoods. This decentralized approach empowered our volunteers to address local issues with creativity and dedication. Additionally, we made significant strides by starting our first subdivisions in Kashmir and initiating multiple projects focused on women, children, the elderly, and other marginalized sections of the community.

This pivotal year marked the establishment of a proper formal structure for our organization. We launched volunteering campaigns across various colleges and universities, receiving overwhelming support from students who joined our mission in large numbers, regardless of their religion, gender, or other identities.

Our achievements this year would not have been possible without the unwavering support of our team leaders, volunteers, and community members. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to each one of you for your dedication and hard work. Together, we are making a meaningful difference in the lives of many, and I look forward to continuing this journey with all of you.

TASNEEM ZAFAR

FOUNDER AND GENERAL SECRETARY

This pivotal year saw the registration of our Trust and the establishment of dedicated teams across various colleges in different states, granting them full autonomy to address local issues creatively and effectively. Our decentralized approach led to significant initiatives in diverse communities, including our first subdivisions in Kashmir.

Our projects, focusing on marginalized sections, reflect our commitment to holistic community development. We achieved a major milestone by formally structuring our organization. Our volunteering campaigns across colleges received overwhelming support from students, emphasizing our inclusive mission. This success is credited to the unwavering dedication of our team leaders, volunteers, and community members. We overcame funding challenges by securing small contributions from many supporters. This mass-scale fundraising increased our stakeholders and bolstered our goodwill and community trust. A cornerstone of our mission has been to uplift the good name of the Muslim community. By embracing our identities as Muslims, we have worked tirelessly to spread communal harmony and love among different religions and communities. Our efforts aim to foster understanding and unity, demonstrating that together, we can build a more inclusive and peaceful society. Together, we are making a meaningful difference in the lives of many, and I look forward to continuing this journey with all of you. Thank you for your unwavering support.

HIGHLIGHT PROJECTS

Iftaar Kits Distribution

In 2019, United for Humanity (UFH) organized a Ramadan Iftar Kits distribution drive in 5 major states. UFH distributed nutritious food kits to homeless, destitute and impoverished families to help them avoid hunger during the holy month of Ramadan.

Winter Wear Distribution

Breaking the record of 118 years of cold winters, 2019 was particularly harsh. Homeless people suffered the most. Team UFH distributed 100+ blankets, 200+ warm essential clothes. Helped 60+ families.

Delhi Riot Relief

In the 2020 Delhi riots, the charitable organization UFH implemented a multi-phased approach to support the most vulnerable victims. This included providing immediate relief, conducting detailed surveys, and offering targeted long-term assistance to help families restart their livelihoods.

HIGHLIGHT PROJECTS

Blood Chain

UFH organized a highly successful blood donation camp that collected 96 units of blood, addressing shortages and raising awareness about the critical need for regular donations highlighting the power of collective action.

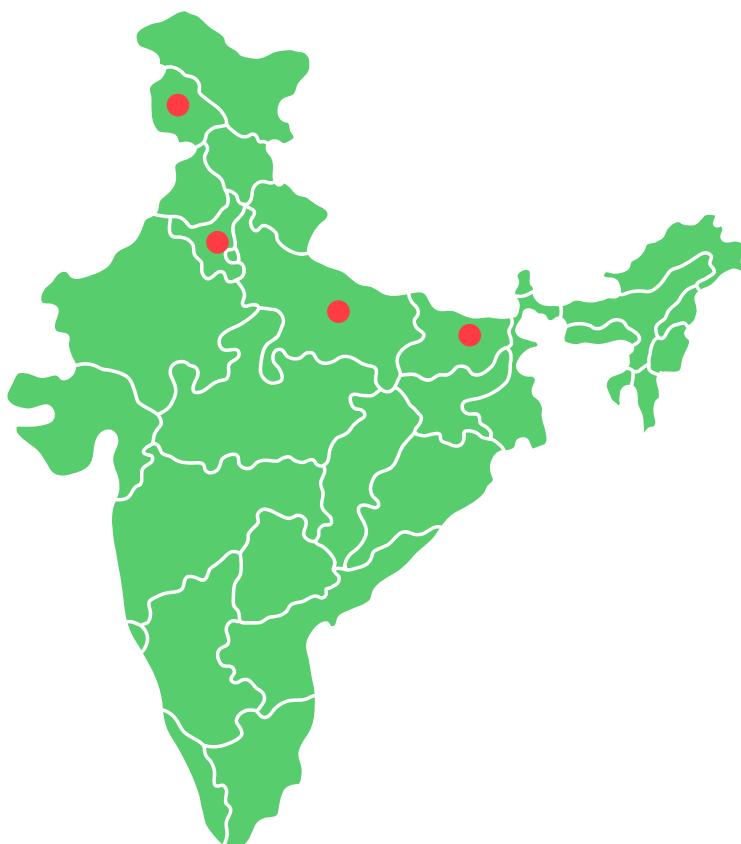

Eid Distribution

In the days leading up to Eid al-Fitr, Team UFH visited the Sharam Vihar slum in New Delhi and identified 100 children in need of new Eid clothes. Team provided essential clothing to the children, ensuring they could experience the joy and cultural traditions associated with the festival.

RAMADAN IFTAR KITS DISTRIBUTION

Spanning four major states, United for Humanity makes iftar accessible for all.

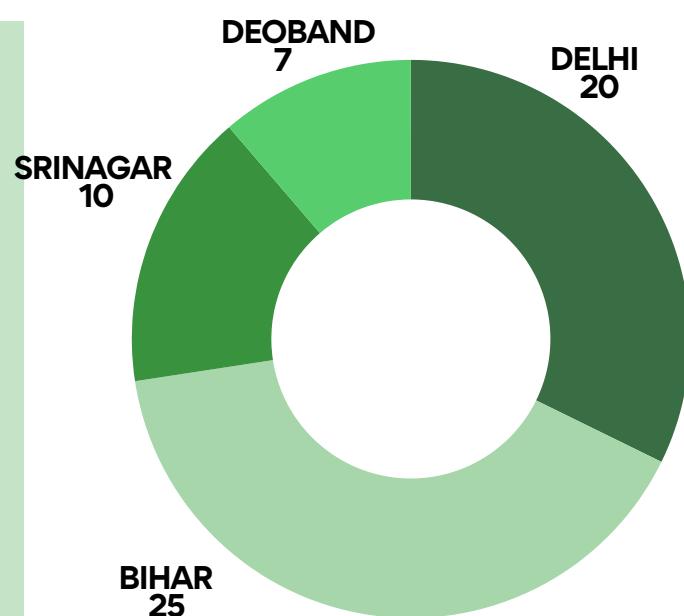

Despite limited experience and resources, UFH distributed kits to homeless, destitute and impoverished families, providing them with enough food to avoid hunger during the holy month of Ramadan across several states in India, including Delhi, Srinagar, Bihar, Deoband, and Kashmir.

The kits contained nutritious staples, along with sarees and mats; bringing smiles and helping them sustain for the holy month.

Ramadan is a time of spiritual reflection, increased charity and giving, known as "zakat" or "Sadaqah". The Prophet himself donated (ﷺ) Muhammad more to charity during this auspicious month than any other time of the year. Inspired by this spirit of generosity, UFH decided to distribute Iftar kits in 2019, marking their inaugural year, to make a meaningful contribution

To celebrate the fervour of the month, UFH hosted iftaar parties at orphanages in New Delhi and Kashmir. The orphans in Panzin village, Kashmir, were treated to dinner and Iftar by Team Kashmir. The hospitality and warm treatment received from the locals in the Kashmir Valley inspired the team to continue their work. This drive has strengthened UFH's resolve to uplift the marginalized and spread more joy in the years to come.

For the homeless and those living in poor conditions, this harsh reality was a matter of life and death. Recognizing the urgent need to provide relief, UFH launched a blanket donation drive to ensure the most vulnerable had access to the warmth and protection they desperately required.

Team UFH sprang into action, surveying and visiting several locations across the national capital, including Nehru Place, Bhairon Mandir, Jamia Nagar, Tikona Park Slums, and Kalkaji Slums. Through their efforts, they were able to identify 60 families in dire need of assistance.

THIS PROJECT SERVES AS A SHINING EXAMPLE OF

TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE, AND UFH REMAINS

IN THE YEARS TO COME.

Working tirelessly to ensure that every individual received the essential items they needed to survive the harsh winter conditions, UFH demonstrated the power of compassion and the difference we can make when we come together to help those in need. The generous support of the community made a tangible difference in the lives of those who were struggling to survive the winter.

FROM RUINS TO RISING

THE 2020 DELHI RIOTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE NORTH EAST DELHI RIOTS, WERE A SERIES OF VIOLENT COMMUNAL CLASHES IN NORTH EAST DELHI, BEGINNING ON FEBRUARY 26, 2020. THE RIOTS LEFT A TRAIL OF DESTRUCTION, CLAIMING LIVES AND SHATTERING THE DREAMS OF COUNTLESS FAMILIES.

FEBRUARY, 2020

UFH has played a crucial role in providing relief, restoring hope, and paving the way for long-term recovery. The epicentre of the riots was the working-class neighbourhoods of North East Delhi, home to a predominantly population of daily wage labourers and small business owners. Team UFH, understanding the gravity of the situation, started ground action which was a three phase project.

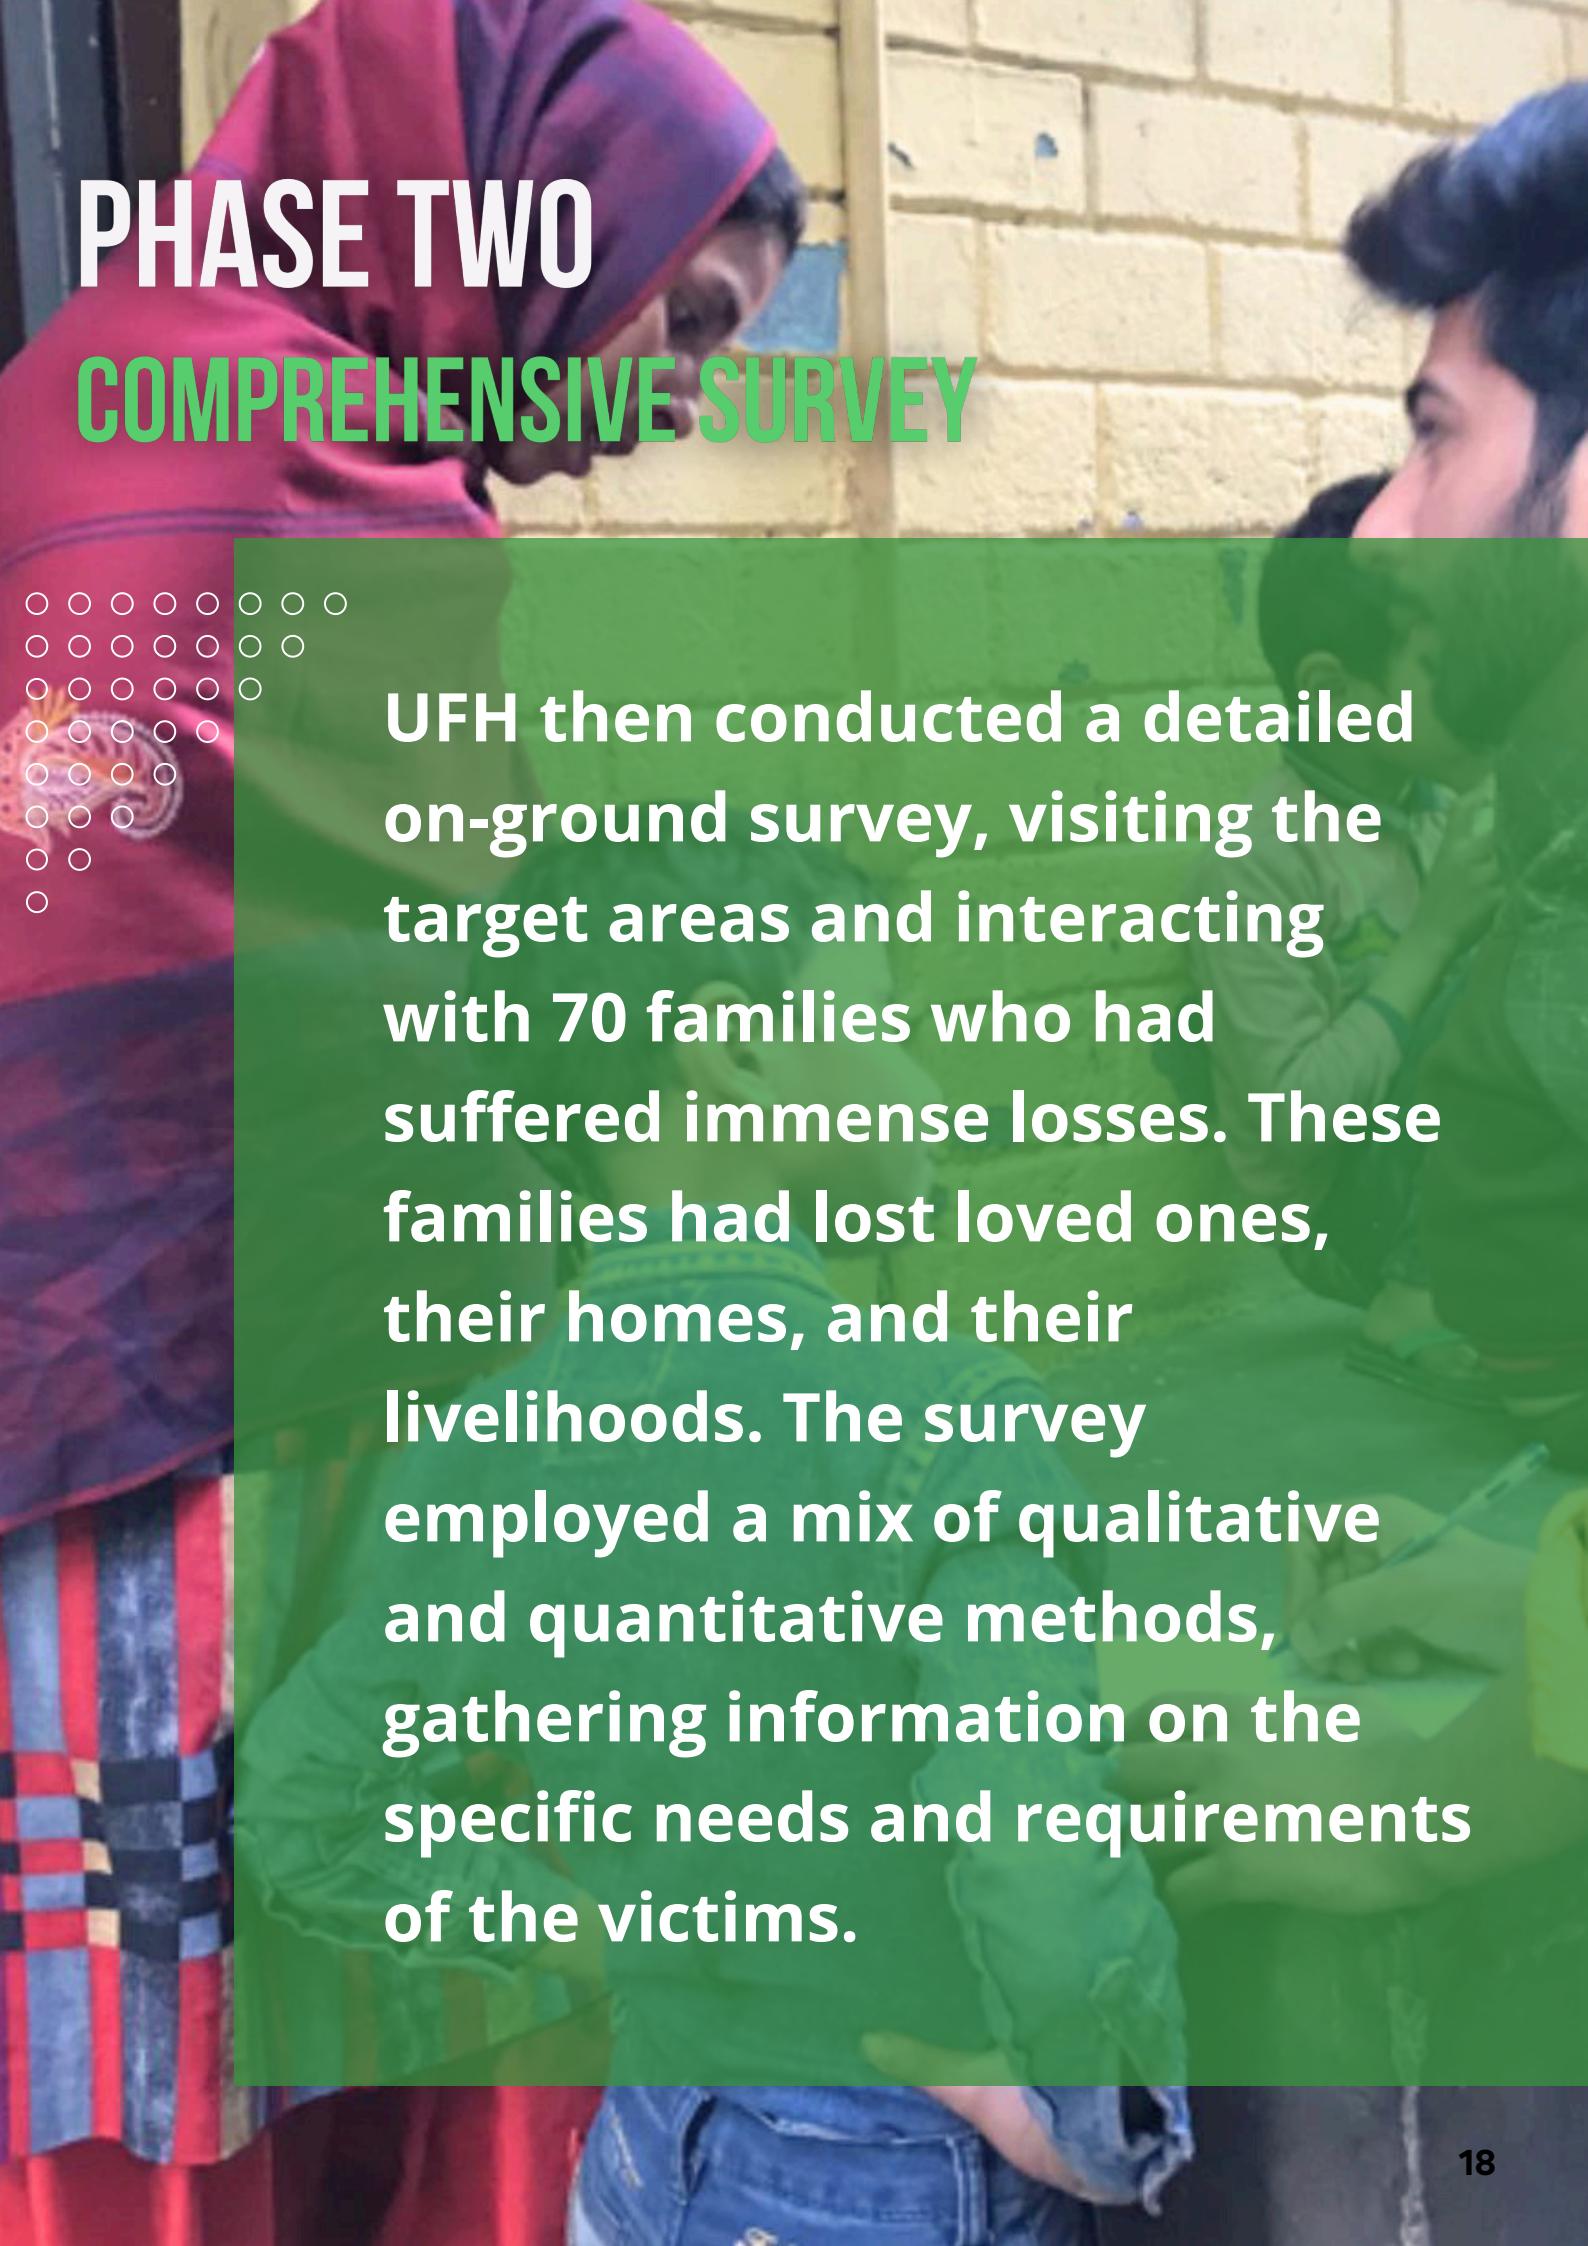

PHASE ONE

RECOGNIZING THE URGENT NEED FOR ASSISTANCE

(UFH), in collaboration with the Jamia Teachers' Association, immediately sprang into action by providing instant aid to over 200 families, delivering essential supplies such as food, clothing, medicine, and temporary shelters. The team also offered first-aid and other emergency services to those affected by the violence.

PHASE TWO COMPREHENSIVE SURVEY

UFH then conducted a detailed on-ground survey, visiting the target areas and interacting with 70 families who had suffered immense losses. These families had lost loved ones, their homes, and their livelihoods. The survey employed a mix of qualitative and quantitative methods, gathering information on the specific needs and requirements of the victims.

PHASE THREE

REBUILDING AND RESTORATION

Based on the survey findings, UFH identified the 20 most vulnerable families who had lost everything, from their homes to their businesses. The organization then took steps to rejuvenate their livelihoods by renovating the damaged shops and providing the necessary support to help them rebuild their lives. UFH's commitment went beyond immediate care, as they worked tirelessly to ensure long-term sustainability for the affected families.

ARIF'S STORY: ONE OF THE MANY

Among the most affected were 20 families who lost everything in the violence. One such family was that of Arif, a tailor by profession who worked tirelessly to support his wife and three daughters. Arif's story is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit in the face of unimaginable adversity. When the mobs targeted Arif, they set his shop ablaze, destroying his livelihood and plunging his family into despair. Arif was left with no means to provide for his loved ones, his hopes and dreams reduced to ashes.

I DIDN'T HAVE ANY OTHER SOURCE OF INCOME AND MY FAMILY WOULD DIE OF HUNGER IF NO HELP REACHED ME," ARIF SHARED WITH OUR TEAM, HIS VOICE TREMBLING WITH THE WEIGHT OF HIS BURDEN. BUT IN THE DARKEST OF TIMES, A GLIMMER OF HOPE EMERGED.

The UFH team, recognizing the gravity of Arif's situation, sprang into action. They provided Arif with two sewing machines, enabling him to rebuild his business from the ground up. The team also renovated and painted his shop, restoring it to its former glory. Arif could once again start his business and earn a living for his family.

BUT ARIF'S STORY IS JUST ONE AMONG MANY. COUNTLESS FAMILIES ARE STILL STRUGGLING TO PICK UP THE PIECES AND REBUILD THEIR LIVES IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE RIOTS.

Victims of violence need empathy, not judgment

Islamuddin, a resident of Shiv Vihar, Delhi, was a victim of the devastating 2020 riots. He had been running a small wood business, barely scraping by to support his family of nine. The violent unrest destroyed his livelihood and left him and his loved ones homeless. In the aftermath of this tragedy, our team at UFH stepped in to help Islamuddin rebuild his life. He was provided with the essential equipment needed to restart his business, giving him the means to once again support his family. However, Islamuddin's struggle is far from over - he and his family currently reside in a temporary camp in Old Mustafabad, desperate for a safe, permanent living space.

United for Humanity urges the society to ensure that no one is left behind, and that families like that of Islamuddin have the resources to recover and thrive once more.

BLOOD CHAIN

Perturbed by the prevalence of medical negligence in society, team UFH. decided to take up a blood donation drive, with over 100 individuals donating blood, a total of 96 units collected, and 6 hospitals hand in hand, the drive was a resounding success.

The camp bore a multifaceted impact. From helping to address the shortage of blood in hospitals, to raising awareness about the importance and the need for regular donations, simultaneously highlighting the importance of collective action to ensure that the patients receive proper treatment.

The blood was collected at various locations in the national capital. Hospitals including Apollo Hospital, AIIMS, Al Shifa, Holy Family, Kailash Jain Hospital, GB Pant were partnered in the initiative. These hospitals are renowned for their medical expertise and are well-equipped to provide high-quality care to patients. UFH maintained all official guidelines whilst sourcing the blood.

It serves as a testament to the power of non-governmental organisations in making a difference in the lives of those in need.

EID WITH UFH

"I've never had new clothes for Eid before, this makes me feel so happy and special."

-An 8 year old girl

Sharam Vihar slum area of New Delhi. struggles with fulfilling the basic necessities of life. The true essence of Eid celebrations had become lost for many children whose families had migrated from their hometowns in search of employment. Recognizing this, Team UFH stepped in to bring joy and restore the spirit of the festival through an Eid Clothes Distribution initiative.

The team visited the slum and identified children who had never experienced the excitement of new Eid clothes, as their families struggled to make ends meet.

For many, it was the first time they had the opportunity to dress up and feel the true joy of Eid. The initiative not only provided essential clothing but also restored a sense of belonging and cultural identity for the children. Through simple acts of generosity, Team UFH was able to make a meaningful difference in the lives of 100 children.

"Through this initiative, we aimed to bring joy and restore the true essence of Eid celebrations for these children. It was heartwarming to see the smiles on their faces and to know that we could make a difference, even in a small way.", said Tasneem Zafer, the Founder and General Secretary.

Shram Vihar is a slum area in South-East Delhi, mainly inhabited by Rohingya refugees. The area faces shortage of basic necessities like water

COMMITMENT, IMPACT & FUTURE

After the debut year of United for Humanity in 2018 starting as a campaign , the organisation successfully registered and took on bigger and better projects in the second year of its running, elevating and changing the lives of thousands across India. Through the impactful initiatives, UFH demonstrated an unwavering commitment to making society a better place for everyone.

From the Iftar Kits distribution drive in the holy month of Ramadan to celebrating Eid in the streets of shram vihar, team UFH aimed to keep up the festive spirits. In the face of record-breaking cold winters, the winter essentials and blanket distribution drive provided the much needed warmth in cold winter nights of the national capital.

Seeing the medical negligence prevailing in the society, setting up a blood donation camp felt like the need of the hour.

The camp turned out to be a huge success and highlighted the much overlooked issue of blood shortage in the society.

When the devastating Delhi riots struck in February 2020, providing immediate aid to over 200 families, became just the first step of a much longer riot relief project. After conducting thorough surveys the UFH decided to provide long term sustenance to by reviving the business and rebuilding the homes of the deadly riot victims. The trauma and struggle to have a better life continues. Team ufh is grateful for the privilege of serving our community and humbled by the trust placed in us. However, there is still a long way to go, and we need your continued support to make our vision of a better world a reality. Together, we can create lasting change and ensure that no one is left behind.
